

It's about: a place to exchange ideas, socialize, meet and encounter

Architecture

Balancing Privacy

Create boundaries for café with full-height moveable walls

Products to consider: Pathways Privacy Walls

Furniture

Balancing Privacy

Enable small group conversations by creating space division with booth seating

Making Work Visible

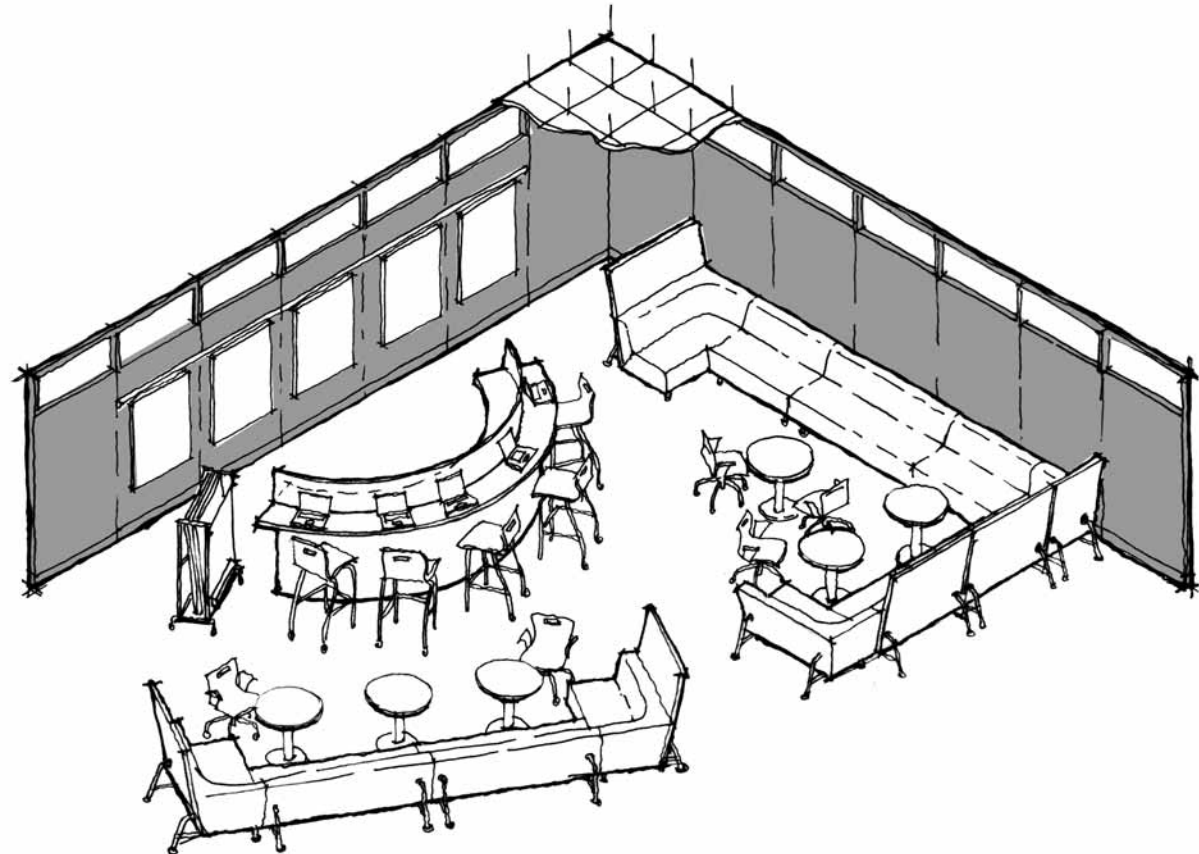

Provide visual display with whiteboards

Managing Connections, Offering Inspiring Spaces

Encourage conversation and knowledge exchange using a variety of furniture, such as booth seating and café stools

Create a central meeting place with a counter and café stools. Counter can house a refrigerator and appliances as well as power and communications

Products to consider: Metro Bix seating and café table, Huddleboard, Metro Rover stools and chairs

Managing the workplace strategically

Creating and managing a high-performance workplace demands the thoughtful planning of numerous diverse and interconnected issues

- Define goals and measure results in line with corporate strategies
- Apply architecture, furniture and technology products—insuring flexibility, dependability, adaptability and environmental responsibility.
- Combine efficiency and effectiveness by focusing on how people actually work and by applying the appropriate planning principles.

Note: Some application restrictions may apply for seismic zones 3 and 4

Each worksetting addresses these planning principles at varying levels based on need. This worksetting maps out as follows:

